

Choosing Best Books For Children

Priscilla Queen

pqueen@dclibraries.org 303-688-7626

Douglas County Libraries Literacy Department
Adjunct Professor of Children's Literature, MSCD

Using Child Development and Learning Theories

Every Child Ready To Read – Six Skills To Keep In Mind

1. Print Motivation
2. Print Awareness
3. Letter Knowledge
4. Vocabulary
5. Phonological Awareness
6. Narrative Skills

Highly Recommended Books and Why (available through rorstore.scholastic.com)

Birth to Two-Year-Olds

All About Baby
Animal Babies
Baby 123
Baby Faces
El Libro Rojo – The Red Book
Peek-A-Boo
Snap! Snap! Buzz Buzz

Two and Three-Year-Olds

Eating the Alphabet
Goodnight Moon
Is Your Mama A Llama?
Little Gorilla
Napping House
Read To Your Bunny
Runaway Bunny
Very Hungry Caterpillar

Four and Five-Year-Olds

Are You My Mother?
Bear Went Over The Mountain
Can't You Sleep Little Bear
Caps For Sale
Feast for 10

Freight Train

I Spy

If You Give A Mouse A Cookie

Ming Lo Moves The Mountain

Miss Spider's Tea Party

Sheep In A Jeep

Ten, Nine, Eight